2008 Endeavour Language Teacher Fellowships

Trainee (Pre-Service) Language Teachers

Bring the World to Your Classroom!

"For my first time overseas, and to finally experience first-hand Japanese culture and language/ dialects has been incredible... This has given me more confidence. It is a necessity to have in-country experience before teaching."

Adam Elliott
2007 Japan programme

Take part in a 3-week intensive language and culture programme

- Improve your language proficiency
- Experience the lived culture
- Network with teachers from across Australia
- Gather up-to-date authentic materials
- Return enthused

In-country study programmes will be offered nationally to trainee (pre-service) teachers of Chinese, Japanese and Arabic in China, Japan and either Jordan or the United Arab Emirates respectively. Also, an onshore Bahasa Indonesia programme will be offered in Darwin, Northern Territory.

While the specific arrangements may vary across study programmes, each study programme will include three weeks of intensive language and cultural study in January 2008.

Applications close 5pm Friday 20 July 2007

The Endeavour Language Teacher Fellowships are an Australian Government initiative, under the umbrella of Australian Scholarships, for trainee (pre-service) language teachers and practising language teachers in Australia to improve their language proficiency and cultural knowledge. Programmes run over three weeks in January 2008 and most costs are covered, including return airfares, accommodation, tuition, some meals and cultural activities.
