Community Festivals

Cambodian Festival - 14th September

The Immigration Museum presents three community cultural festivals per year. The festivals celebrate and promote Victoria's rich cultural diversity. Festivals are developed and presented in partnership with representatives from a particular culturally diverse community and include contributions from organisations and individuals.

Community Gallery

The Waters of Tuvalu

5 Aug - 16 Nov 2008

An exhibition that explores the effect of climate change on the Pacific island nations. This new exhibition will be among the first to tackle a pressing consequence of climate change – the expected loss of Pacific island nations and resulting migration. The exhibition will pose the challenging question: What would you do if you had no homeland ?
